California Nonresident Tuition/Fee Exemption Request

For Eligible Children of Deported or Voluntarily Departed Parents (SB141)

Students who are U.S. citizens and who may presently reside in a foreign country will be exempt from nonresident tuition by meeting the following requirements:

1. Demonstrates a financial need for the exemption.
2. Has a parent or guardian who has been deported or was permitted to depart voluntarily under the federal Immigration and Nationality Act.
3. Moved abroad as a result of the deportation or voluntary departure.
4. Lived in California immediately before moving abroad.
5. Attended a public or private secondary school in California for three or more years.
6. Upon enrollment, will be in his or her first academic year as a matriculated student in California public higher education.
7. Will be living in California and will file an affidavit with the community college stating that he or she intends to establish residency in California as soon as possible.
8. Documentation shall be provided by the student as required by statute as specified in Education Code section 76140(a)(5).
   a. Documentation from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services evidencing the deportation or voluntary departure of parent.
   b. Documentation of legal residence in California before departure.
   c. Documentation that demonstrates secondary school attendance.

A student receiving a nonresident tuition exemption under SB 141 does not receive resident status for the purpose of fees or financial aid. Rather they are exempt from nonresident tuition fees under this law. These students do not qualify for the BOG Fee Waiver or any other state financial aid until they establish California residency. As citizens, SB 141 students may apply and qualify for federal financial assistance such as Pell, FSEOG and federal student loans.
