Discussion on the 1968
High School Walk-Outs by Bobby Verdugo

Bobby Verdugo was a leader of the historic 1968 high school walkouts of East Los Angeles, a historic student-led effort to bring education reform to the disenfranchised schools on the Eastside. In addition to educational and policy improvements, the walkouts brought about a remarkable increase in Chicano enrollment at UCLA, from only 40 students in 1967, to 1,200 students in 1969. He was portrayed in the HBO docudrama "Walkout" about these events.

Riverside Community College District is committed to providing access and reasonable accommodation to all District programs and activities.
