3	I have not been able to log in to Lynda.com since becoming a student Fall 2018. I know Lynda is a very useful site and it should be made more convenient for students to use. I went to numerous resources on campus: admin office, career services, tutoring center, and followed all the steps on the Norco site to no avail. I really appreciate the Lynda.com resource, please continue to offer it and make those resources mentioned aware of it and train them on how to guide students to full access: including following up to make sure these efforts lead to successfully accessing the site. Also, the email link to the admin in charge of granting access was unresponsive after numerous attempts. Norco is a great school and I value all of the resources made available to the students on our path to academic success.	5/10/2019 1:51 PM
