

Frequently Asked Questions

International Students

What do I do if I'm an International Student?

Because International students have specific requirements for both admission and for academic planning, it is important that you work directly with the International Student's Office.