

A Successful Mustang:

Accepts Responsibility

One way Norco College judges success is by the number of students who parade each year across the graduation stage. A key component in student success is having a safe and healthy learning environment.

Norco College's dedication to you is evident in our core commitments:

Mutual Respect. Belief in the personal dignity and full potential of every individual and in fostering positive human values in the classroom and in all interactions.

Inclusiveness. Embracing diversity in all its forms – global as well as local – and creating a supportive climate that encourages a variety of perspectives and opinions.

Integrity. Maintaining an open, honest, and ethical environment.

Environmental stewardship. Being mindful of the impact we have on the environment, as individuals and as a community, and fostering environmental responsibility among students.

Student Success. Being an institution that places high value on the academic and personal success of students in and outside of the classroom where meeting student needs drives all decisions regarding educational programs and services.

Standards of Student Conduct

Responsibility

- A. The Chancellor is responsible for establishing appropriate procedures for the administration of disciplinary actions. In this regard, please refer to Administrative Procedure 5520, which deals with matters of student discipline and student grievance.
- B. The Vice President of Student Services of each college will be responsible for the overall implementation of the procedures which are specifically related to all nonacademic, student related matters contained in Administrative Procedure 5520.
- C. The Vice President of Academic Affairs of each college will be responsible for the overall implementation of the procedures which are specifically related to class activities or academic matters contained in Administrative Procedure 5522.
- D. For matters involving the prohibition of discrimination and harassment, the concern should be referred to the District's Diversity, Equity and Compliance Office.
- E. The definitions of cheating and plagiarism and the penalties for violating standards of student conduct pertaining to cheating and plagiarism will be published in all schedules of classes, the college catalog, the student handbook, and the faculty handbook. Faculty members are encouraged to include the definitions and penalties in their course syllabi.

Practices Academic Honesty

In cases of academic dishonesty by a student, a faculty member may take any one of the following actions:

1. The faculty member may: a) reduce the score on test(s) or assignment(s); b) reduce the grade in the course; or c) fail the student in the course if the weight of the test(s) or assignment(s) warrants course failure. The faculty member may recommend to the College Deans of Instruction that the student be suspended from the course. If the course suspension is recommended, the College Deans of Instruction will review the information regarding the charge of academic dishonesty, notify the student, consult with
