Database Tips:

- Use a variety of words or phrases to describe what you're looking for, but keep it simple, and don't be afraid to do multiple searches.
- Find a few articles that work, and look for new words/phrases to describe what you're looking for, and search again using those new phrases or words.
- Less is more -- try to get less than 60 results per search.
- Use the "refine results" in the left hand column to narrow down your results.

If you're still having problems, come see us at the reference desk, email or call us at (951) 372-7115
