-Actual AP transfer credit and number of units awarded for AP exams towards Cal-GETC and towards admission is determined by the CSU and UC systems.

-The AP chart is based on the most current information available at the time of catalog publication.

-The UC system-wide Policy for AP credit (units towards admission) can be found at:
AP credits | UC Admissions (universityofcalifornia.edu)

-The CSU system-wide policy for AP (units towards admission) can be found at:

-Important Note: Each CSU and UC campus determines how an AP exam may count toward credit in a particular major and which scores they consider acceptable. This information may be found in either the university's college catalog or on their website. Students should see a counselor to review the applicability of AP credits towards the different academic requirements.
