- Approved by consensus.

3. Discussion Items

3.1 Data Governance Workgroup Draft Charter (C. Busso)

- Data Governance Draft Document
  - Caitlin presented a draft charter for a data governance work group under IEGC, aiming to provide structure around data sources and processes for better decision-making. The group discussed defining processes and criteria for data governance review, membership composition, and the strategic nature of their work.
  - They emphasized the importance of data security and governance, with a focus on strategic decision-making.

- The group also discussed the need for two types of appointments, strategic and operational, and the potential establishment of a work group to finalize the process and establish policies for data handling.
- The plan was to establish a one-year task force to create the process and solicit members for the workgroup who will implement. The team was encouraged to review the documentation before the next meeting and consider serving on the task force or suggesting others who might be a good fit.

3.2 Quorum Updates

- Reviewed quorum updates, emphasizing the importance of equitable student outcomes and efficient use of time. The process now allows for hybrid attendance, with voting members and guests able to attend virtually or in person.
- The members discussed the transition to hybrid meeting options for the Leadership Councils, including the Academic Council, Student Support Council, and Resources Council. The decision was made to allow all members, including voting members and guests, to attend via Zoom. The co-chairs would be present in person to facilitate the meetings. The discussion also revolved around quorum, with suggestions to redefine it as 50% of the actual attendees plus one. The minimum threshold for decision-making was also discussed, with the suggestion of a 3-person minimum. The aim was to ensure that the councils could effectively move items forward and make strategic planning goals, even with hybrid meeting options.
- The discussion focused on voting requirements for IEGC. The proposal was to have a minimum of 5 members present, with representation from at least 2/3 of the constituency groups, to ensure broad participation in decision-making. This proposal aimed to prevent a scenario where a constituency group could potentially block decisions by not showing up. The plan is to bring this proposal to the college council for further discussion and a final decision, after considering feedback from all councils. Concerns were raised about potential issues if critical decisions were made without the traditional quorum present.
- Members focused on the issue of quorums in decision-making processes, particularly in the context of the college council. The participants discussed the challenges of ensuring quorum, especially when some members are absent due to personal or professional reasons. They also considered the implications of a hybrid meeting format on quorum requirements. The consensus was to increase the minimum number of members required for quorum from three to five, ensuring representation from all three constituency groups. The participants also acknowledged the need to address broader issues of decision-making and inclusivity. The conversation ended with an appreciation for the distribution of decision-making responsibilities across various councils.
- An update to College Council will be given at the October meeting.

4. Information Items

4.1 2024-2025 IEGC Annual Calendar

- Council members reviewed the calendar to have a grasp on expectations on agenda times for the academic year. Particularly the program review and assessment process.

4.2 IEGC Resource Request Review Process

- Meeting Minutes- IEGC- Norco College- 4-25-2024
- The IEGC members reviewed the approved Resource Request Process to avoid feeling uncomfortable ranking and rubber-stamping of requests. The new process allows for feedback and responsiveness to requests without feeling pressured to re-rate them. The co-chairs also discussed the timeline for the Report of Effectiveness, which usually comes in the spring but sometimes in September. They agreed to send the survey at the beginning or end of the semester to give more time for discussion and report generation. The conversation ended with a review of the new review process to ensure everyone is confident going into the next prioritization. Discussion about the purpose and voting mechanism of the office of the President, which came from the Executive Cabinet. The team agreed to continue with the current voting system, but also considered alternative mechanisms for giving recommendations. The main concern was the lack of attendance and participation in the councils, which was addressed by introducing a hybrid option. The team also discussed the importance of representatives attending meetings to ensure their groups voices are heard.

4.3 Strategic Planning IEGC Workgroup Update

- The workgroup discussed their ongoing efforts to draft a new 5-year strategic plan, aiming to make it accessible and user-friendly. The plan is to share a rough draft in October, gather feedback in the fall semester, and finalize it in the spring semester for approval. The current strategic plan is set to expire on June 30, 2025.

4.4 Accreditation Update

- The accreditation team has started this fall with facilitating workshops to orient people to the new standards and prepare them for the evidence-gathering process. All of us play a part in the accreditation process we look forward to working with you to gather all your great work.

Charter for Data Governance IEGC Workgroup

2024-2025

This Charter is established between the Data Governance IEGC Workgroup and the Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council to establish a procedure for Data Governance at Norco College.

Purpose

The Data Governance IEGC Workgroup is comprised of constituency members from the IEGC and appointed members from CSEA and Academic Senate, including representation from administration, classified professionals, and faculty. The workgroup is responsible for creating a process for data governance at Norco College. Key aspects of a strong data governance process include:

- Data Management – identify essential data elements to be used in local, state and federal reporting requirements; define and standardize those elements for reliable and valid use across the institution and in multiple reports; and design and deploy effective and efficient collection and storage processes that ensure security, privacy and appropriate integration across programs and from multiple data sources.
- Valid and Reliable Analyses – provide controlled access and use, particularly by IR and IE personnel, that enables timely, reliable and valid research and analysis.

Charge

The Data Governance IEGC Workgroup is charged with creating a data governance process.

The Workgroup is responsible for identifying the criteria and/or situations that will require data governance approval, creating a data governance application, and a step-by-step process for data governance.

Guiding Principles and Assumptions

The IEGC Workgroup has established the following guiding principles for Data Governance:

Guiding Principles and Assumptions

- Integrity: Be truthful and forthcoming when discussing purposes, constraints, options, and impacts for data-related decisions.
- Accuracy: To the greatest extent reasonably practicable, data will be verified as accurate for the purposes of use.
- Transparency/Auditability: Exhibit transparency so that it is clear to all participants and auditors how and when data-related decisions and controls were introduced into data-related processes. Create and maintain auditable data-related decisions, processes, and controls subject to Data Governance, where any such process will be accompanied by documentation to support compliance-based and operational auditing requirements.
- Accountability: Define and clarify who is accountable for data-related decisions, processes, and controls.
- Responsibility: Define and clarify who is accountable for data accuracy.
- Standardization: Introduce and support standardization of all data and sources.
- Change Management: Support proactive and reactive Change Management activities for reference data values and the structure/use of master data and metadata.

Scope & Expected Deliverables

The IEGC Workgroup will create a data governance procedure, including criteria for submission, an application, and a process for approval. The Workgroup will also identify the future body/group that will continue the process long term.

Membership

The Workgroup consists of key members from the Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council, appointed members from respective representative bodies, and/or defined membership based on expertise, title, functional area of responsibility. The workgroup reports to the IEGC, and thus all updates and action items will be communicated to the oversight body, IEGC, College Council, and Academic Senate. Membership includes the following individuals:

- Chair(s)
- CSEA (2)
- Academic Senate (2)
- Management/Administration (2)

Meeting Time/Pattern

The Data Governance IEGC Workgroup will meet monthly with specific day/time TBD.

Roles of Chairs and Members

The Chair/Co-Chairs will communicate with IEGC to ensure continuity of dialogue between governance tiers, and as appropriate to College Council and Academic Senate. Chair/Co-Chairs are responsible for preparing agenda and facilitating meetings of the Workgroup based on best practices and guidelines for effective facilitation.

Members are recognized as stakeholders with important expertise and perspectives relevant to the workgroup. Members are expected to actively attend and participate in all meetings, deliberations, and decision-making processes. While representing the perspectives of the constituency group to which they belong members are expected to engage in effective dialogue with constituency peers with the intention of finding consensus on issues that come before the IEGC Workgroup.

Meeting Procedures and Expectations

The Chair(s), and members of this governance entity will adhere to meeting and governance best practices as follows given the operational tasks of the workgroup:

- Summary Notes will be provided in a timely manner to all members.
- Future meeting topics will be communicated in advance of all meetings.
- All members will have access to shared documents/folder.

Members endeavor to:

- appropriately prepare for meetings based on the meeting agenda.
- arrive promptly and stay for the duration of entire meetings.
- participate in a problem-solving approach where the interests of all participants are considered in developing proposals and recommendations and, where appropriate, distinguish between constituency versus college-wide perspectives.
- welcome all ideas, interests and objectives that are within the scope of the charter.
- actively listen to engage in respectful and constructive dialogue.
- work with a spirit of cooperation and compromise leading to authentic collaboration.
- move forward once a consensus-based decision has been made.
- follow through on tasks that are committed to outside of scheduled meetings.

NORCO COLLEGE DATA GOVERNANCE

WHAT IS DATA GOVERNANCE

Data Governance is an emerging discipline that combines data management, data quality, and data policies. Data governance encompasses the processes, policies, standards, organization, and technologies required to manage and ensure the availability, accessibility, quality, consistency, auditability, and security of institutional data.

MISSION AND VISION

Mission: To ensure that the highest quality data are collected, analyzed and made available to key stakeholders through coordinated efforts for the purposes of improving efficiency, protecting privacy and enabling better decision-making.

Vision: The institution, along with Institutional Research (IR) and Institutional Effectiveness (IE), benefits from using governance to define and implement a robust system that meets existing and long-term needs of both internal and external stakeholders. Key aspects of a strong system include:

1. Data Management – identify essential data elements to be used in local, state and federal reporting requirements; define and standardize those elements for reliable and valid use across the institution and in multiple reports; and design and deploy effective and efficient collection and storage processes that ensure security, privacy and appropriate integration across programs and from multiple data sources.
2. Valid and Reliable Analyses – provide controlled access and use, particularly by IR and IE personnel, that enables timely, reliable and valid research and analysis.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to describe:

- who can take what actions,
- with what information,
- at what time,
- under what circumstances,
- using what methods

THE WHY

Typical situations when data governance is necessary:

- perceived problems with access to data,
- an inefficient process for requesting information,
- lack of data quality audits,
- duplication of data,
- insufficient training and education about data and the use of shadow systems,
- differences in terminology between units,
- competing priorities rather than complementary ones

Data Governance questions:

- What types of data are collected at the institution?
- Who is responsible for the quality of that data?
- How and where are the data stored and accessed?
- How are the data used and by whom?
- Who makes decisions about data collection?
- What do you do when errors are detected?
- Are the processes for ensuring the security of data documented?
- Is there a data dictionary to explain the meaning of common terms and where is it stored?

PRINCIPLES

- Integrity: Be truthful and forthcoming when discussing purposes, constraints, options, and impacts for data-related decisions.
- Accuracy: To the greatest extent reasonably practicable, data will be verified as accurate for the purposes of use.
- Transparency/Auditability: Exhibit transparency so that it is clear to all participants and auditors how and when data-related decisions and controls were introduced into data-related processes. Create and maintain auditable data-related decisions, processes, and controls subject to Data Governance; where any such process will be accompanied by documentation to support compliance-based and operational auditing requirements.
- Accountability: Define and clarify who is accountable for data-related decisions, processes, and controls.
- Responsibility: Define and clarify who is accountable for data accuracy.
- Standardization: Introduce and support standardization of all data and sources.
- Change Management: Support proactive and reactive Change Management activities for reference data values and the structure/use of master data and metadata.

GOALS

- Support processes and activities that result in accurate and reliable data.
- Provide a central location for various data resources: definitions, templates, processes.
- Data shall be appropriately managed (i.e., collected, stored, protected, and used).
- Data management shall be a core capability that is an integral part of the culture.

- Named roles with specific responsibilities for the curation of data from data entry to archive or disposal should be defined, trained, and appropriately resourced.
- The single, master source/office/role for each different type of data shall be identified and data systems and integrations structured to rely on that source.
- Data is fit for purpose.
- Data shall be accurate and complete, at the appropriate quality for its primary purpose and all other known legitimate uses.
- Data should be monitored so it can be trusted. Data owners have the role of accountability and oversight to assure this trust, with decisions and actions recorded at an appropriate level of detail.
- Data shall be made available where and when required, subject to appropriate security constraints.
- Standards will be consistently applied to encourage reuse, and promote a common understanding of context, meaning, and comparability.
- Data shall be easy to find, quick to understand, and simple to compare.
- Data shall be consistent and predictable, avoiding harm caused by conflicting versions.

RESPONSIBLE STAKEHOLDERS

- Office of Institutional Effectiveness
  - Data Sources
    - CCCCO MIS data files
  - Data & Research Projects
    - Historical data requests
  - Current and/or live data projects (Application Support Technician)
    - Colleague Student Information System (SIS)
    - CCCApply
- Individual program staff
  - Data Sources
    - Local student databases (shadow databases)
      - Contact information
      - Demographics
      - Enrollments
      - Program specific outcome information
  - Program specific contact tracking and case management
    - Standardized process for identifying potential and participating program students within student information systems (SIS)

CHALLENGES

- Multiple definitions of “student”

- Differing definitions of home college, enrolled college and program college
- Definitions and methodology not readily available
- Data stored in varying places (local programs) with differing processes for identifying students by program/service
- Lack of understanding of Personally Identifiable Information (PII) and data security
- Differences between historical and live data
- Local vs. state data alignment
- Reliance on historical knowledge for methodology and definitions
- LGBTQ CCCApply Data: access and confidentiality

PROCEDURES

Data Security

- Anyone with access to a data source will ensure data security by:
  - Creating a password/data encryption and thereby securing all files including Personally Identifiable Information (PII) protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).
    - For the purposes of data governance, Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is defined as an individual's first name, or first initial, and last name in combination with any one Direct Identifier or any combination of Direct/Indirect Identifiers that permits a person's identity to be reasonably inferred by someone who does not have personal knowledge of the relevant circumstances.
      - Direct Identifiers: Information that relates specifically to an individual, such as: name, social security number, student or employee id, driver's license number, address, telephone number, username or e-mail address, account number, credit card number, and biometric record (e.g., fingerprints).
      - Indirect Identifiers: Information that is not unique to an individual but that can be combined with other information to identify specific individuals, such as date of birth, place of birth, mother's maiden name, gender, race/ethnicity, geographic indicator, verification data (pet's name, etc.), and passwords.
  - Not sending unsecured data via email (Sharing via OneDrive is acceptable).
  - Masking any data in a visualization (e.g. dashboard, presentation, etc.) that could potentially reveal the identity of an individual by an observer that does not have personal knowledge beyond that of a typical person.
  - Locking screen prior to leaving computer if data files are visible or accessible.

Data Results Circulation

- In addition to applicable data security measures mentioned above, anyone sharing data results via email, presentation, dashboard, etc. will need to follow these procedures:
  - Cite source(s) of results/analytics.
  - Have methodology of analysis available for those who ask related questions.

- Do NOT assume data are correct without double- or triple-checking for accuracy.
- If errors are found after data results are revealed, correct them as soon as possible and notify the audience of correction.

Data Validation

- Missing data – if any data element is missing enough values, it could invalidate the analysis. A guide to follow for missing data is:
  - Less than 1%: Excellent
  - 1%-5%: Good
  - 6%-9%: Marginal
  - 10%+: Unacceptable
- Check total number of cases to verify if it aligns with expectations. If not:
  - Check outside databases (if available)
  - Check internal databases (SIS, local/program-specific databases, etc.)
- To verify data accuracy
  - If related to students, verify data with random sample of students in SIS
  - If manually input from original data, triple-check (possibly with another person) values to identify input errors
  - Check Operational Definitions/Data Dictionary for accuracy in methodology (e.g. course success/retention, valid grades, ethnicity categories, etc.)

Surveys

- Surveys requiring oversight from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness:
  - Any survey sent out to the entire student population or a large proportion of students
  - When survey conclusions/take-aways will impact college decision-making
- Surveys without required oversight (Office of IE is available for any guidance or feedback):
  - Surveys for specific populations
    - Example: soliciting feedback about an event with limited attendance
  - Surveys with conclusions/take-aways that will not impact the institution or budget

Dashboards

- Creating dashboards correctly requires extensive time and effort, plus expertise. Therefore, requests for dashboards should only be made when:
  - Requests for these data will be made repetitively (i.e., at least weekly) and ongoing.
  - Data are germane to achievement of the Educational Master Plan goals, Strategic Planning Goals, or effective performance of a college unit(s).

DATA GOVERNANCE PROCESS

Units and/or services who create or maintain a data source will need to undergo the Data Governance Process at Norco College when:

- The data source will be consistently utilized over time.
- Results of data will be shared beyond the unit that gathered the data.
- Student or employee contact is involved in the data gathering process.

Process

- Unit of data source will file an application.
- The Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council (IEGC) will/has established a Data Governance Subcommittee who will review applications and vote on whether to ratify the establishment of a new and/or existing data source.

Attendance & Quorum Procedures for 2024-25 Academic Year:

IEGC Resource Request Review Process

1. Before beginning the initial ranking, each department manager and/or area lead will read the current Planning and Development Program Review to be well informed of EMP goal alignment, Data and Assessment review, etc. This information can be found on the Norco College Program Review Committee webpage: <https://www.norcollege.edu/committees/prc/Pages/administrative-unit-program-review.aspx>
2. Managers and/or Area Leads should meet with the department and unit members to review and discuss the resource requests for their areas (new and previously unfunded resource requests are brought forward). Managers will then rank each of their area's items in order of importance in program review.
3. All Managers/Area Leads will collaborate to discuss each Planning and Development item individually and create a sequential ranking of all resource requests in the division with no duplicate rankings.
4. IEGC shall select and review the current strategic directions, budget priorities or other areas to be used in their evaluation of the sequential ranking from managers. Training/support on how to evaluate the Council Ranking Workbook will be provided to IEGC members.
5. The sequential ranking of the Planning and Development resource requests will then be provided to the Norco College Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council (IEGC) members and placed on the September agenda for review and discussion for a recommendation by the council.
  - Ranking managers may be invited to the meeting to answer any questions from council members as needed.
  - IEGC will discuss resource requests alignment with the strategic directions of the college, budget priorities, or other areas as agreed upon by IEGC for the funding year and attach written rationale that clarifies/confirms strategic alignment in regard to the ranking.
  - IEGC may deem it necessary to change the sequential ranking of resource requests. When this occurs the council will discuss the new ranking, provide written rationale for the change, and vote on the new rank and rationale.
6. IEGC recommendations for Planning and Development resource requests will then be sent forward to the College Council for consideration at their October meeting.
7. The recommendations are then sent to the Executive Cabinet for funding consideration.
8. Deviations by Executive Cabinet from the council rankings should be included in the College President Memorandum.

Report of Effectiveness 2022-2023

Governance Entity:

Institutional Effectiveness & Governance Council

Charge:

The Institutional Effectiveness & Governance Council (IEGC) coordinates, discusses, and makes recommendations regarding functions, plans, and activities related to mission, academic quality, institutional effectiveness, institutional integrity, leadership, and governance. The IEGC provides leadership and retains responsibility for ACCJC Standards I and IV, while serving as a communication link to the rest of the college regarding strategic and operational matters associated with their assigned Educational Master Plan objectives. The IEGC makes recommendations to the College Council, Academic Senate and the Vice President of Planning & Development.

Sponsoring Council/Senate:

College Council

Co-chairs:

Dr. Tenisha James, Ms. Ashlee Johnson and Ms. Leona Vassale (proxy)

Members:

Dr. Greg Aycock, Ms. Makenna Ashcraft, Ms. Caitlin Busso, Dr. Greg Ferrer, Dr. Mark Hartley, Dr. Tenisha James, Ms. Ashlee Johnson, Ms. Ruth Leal, Mr. Dan Reade, Dr. Tim Russell, Mr. Alex Spencer, Ms. Leona Vassale, and Ms. Dana White

Evaluation of the Survey of Effectiveness:

The purpose of the Survey of Effectiveness (SOE) is to provide a mechanism by which members of the Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council (IEGC) could self-evaluate the effectiveness of the council's planning and decision-making processes. In addition to one (1) open-ended question, the survey also requested feedback on each participant's level of agreement with thirteen (13) statements regarding the Council's effectiveness. The feedback was measured on a Likert Scale from the following options: Strongly Agree, Agree, Disagree, Strongly Disagree, and Does Not Apply.

The 2023 IEGC SOE received a total of seven (7) participants, all of whom responded to 100% (13/13) of the statement prompts. Additionally, there were two (2) responses to the open-ended question.

Results of the 2023 IEGC Survey of Effectiveness highlighted several areas of strength and opportunities for growth.

According to survey results, all (7) participants either strongly agreed or agreed that agendas and minutes were provided far enough in advance of meetings which indicate a strong agreement in this area. Additionally, the group also had strong agreement in several other areas in which all but one (1) of the seven (7) participants either strongly agreed or agreed that: agenda items were completed within the meeting time, members were encouraged to be actively involved, discussions were collegial, differing opinions were respected, and that members regularly communicated with their constituent groups regarding key issues discussed and actions taken during meetings. Similarly, while all but one participant also strongly agreed or agreed that the purpose of the governance entity aligned well with the college mission, one participant did indicate that this statement did not does not apply to IEGC.

In the areas of least agreement, between two(2) to three (3) of the seven (7) participants either disagreed or strongly disagreed that: members were given adequate information to make informed recommendations or decisions, participation was meaningful and important, the charge was understood by members, members worked toward fulfilling the charge, the work of the Council made an impact on its assigned EMP Goals or KPIs, or that they were satisfied overall with the Council's performance.

As a result, there is evidence to suggest that, while the daily operations of the group seem to be working efficiently, there is a need to clarify the Council's role within governance and strategic process in order to facilitate mobility towards a well-defined charge in a way that is understood by all members.

Lastly, the opportunities for growth highlighted in the Likeart Scale results discussed above we found to be affirmed in the two open-ended question responses which asked for recommendations to help the committee function more effectively.

SOE Open-Ended Question Responses:

"There needs to be increased clarity and understanding regarding the purpose of IEGC and how IEGC should function, including its authority. The council spends an obsessive amount of time on developing/revising small governance processes, to the exclusion of many of our other assigned EMP objectives. Even in the time spent on governance processes there is still confusion regarding the difference in authority/function of IEGC as compared to College Council. It seems there are current practices in place that are disconnected from the SPGM written policies. Additionally, there is confusion regarding the difference between strategic and operational. The point of this work is to ensure strategic priorities are aligned and reflected in our operational practices to better serve students. It would be useful to spend time onboarding council members regarding the council purpose and purview and expectations for serving on a leadership council. It would seem that many members do not feel they are able to make informed decisions on council items, nor understand what the impact of IEGC should be working to achieve."

"I think a serious question should be had about whether this council continues to be necessary. I wish to be clear that I think the leadership of the council has worked hard to make members feel included and to create a sense of organization. My concern has nothing to do with the council's leadership or its members. However, in my admittedly relatively short time on the council, I have yet to see it take on a charge that is distinct to it. Instead, the council regularly seems to find itself stuck working on things that already have homes. Along these same lines, the tasks that the council is asked to do, such as resource request rankings, have also already been completed elsewhere and there is no indication that the council is particularly well situated to provide additional detail or improve upon previous efforts. I would very much like to see the council consider what its UNIQUE purpose is or potentially explore revising the SPGM with an eye towards a serious conversation about which governing bodies have actually proved necessary under our new governance system."

Planning and Development Program Review Resource Request Prioritization Process

1. Before beginning the initial ranking, each department manager and/or area lead will read the current Planning and Development Program Review to be well informed of EMP goal alignment, Data and Assessment review, etc. This information can be found on the Norco College Program Review Committee webpage:
<https://www.norcocollege.edu/committees/prc/Pages/administrative-unit-program-review.aspx>
2. Managers and/or Area Leads should meet with the department and unit members to review and discuss the resource requests for their areas (new and previously unfunded resource requests are brought forward). Managers will then rank each of their area's items in order of importance in program review.
3. All Managers/Area Leads will collaborate to discuss each Planning and Development item individually and create a sequential ranking of all resource requests in the division with no duplicate rankings.
- ~~3.4.~~ IEGC shall select and review the current strategic directions, budget priorities or other areas to be used in their evaluation of the sequential ranking from managers. Training/support on how to evaluate the Council Ranking Workbook will be provided to IEGC members.
- ~~4.5.~~ The sequential ranking of the Planning and Development resource requests will then be provided to the Norco College Institutional Effectiveness and Governance Council (IEGC) members and placed on the September agenda for review and discussion for a recommendation by the council.
  - Ranking managers may be invited to the meeting to answer any questions from council members as needed.
  - IEGC will discuss resource requests alignment with the strategic directions of the college, budget priorities, or other areas as agreed upon by IEGC for the funding year and attach written rationale that clarifies/confirms strategic alignment in regards to the ranking.
  - IEGC may deem it necessary to change the sequential ranking of resource requests, when this occurs the council will discuss the new ranking, provide written rationale for the change, and vote on the new rank and rationale.
- ~~5.6.~~ IEGC recommendations for Planning and Development resource requests will then be sent forward to the College Council for consideration at their

Q2 Is there something that you would recommend to help the committee function more effectively?

Answered: 2   Skipped: 5

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Utilizing the council to proactively monitor our governance and decision-making process, including amendments, the survey/reports of effectiveness, council structure, etc. There needs to be a calendar that requires the council to regularly review and update the SPGM and provide recommendations to strengthen our governance, evaluation, and decision-making processes. This council should also help facilitate a level of training and support for governance and the strategic plan.	3/25/2024 9:26 AM
2	A clearer charge is to me the primary factor that limits IEGC's effectiveness. In particular it would be helpful if the charge had a sense of significance or importance or value. Past meetings have seemed to bog down into either uncertainty as to our goals or into occasionally confrontational discussions over small items that seem within our remit but aren't necessarily worth the amount of frustration they inspire. I will say that as a committee, I think our collegiality and sense of wanting to do useful things has improved as of late.	3/5/2024 2:06 PM

- The re-alignment of the Marketing Committee to the Resources Council is linear to the recent NC college re-organization/revised mission of the office of Planning & Development.
- Re-aligning the Marketing Committee to the Resources Council is linear to the District Marketing & Communication Committee structure.
- Re-aligning the Marketing Committee to the Resources Council is linear to the Strategic Planning structure of our sister colleges.
