Arts &
Humanities

Nancy Pirozzi studied Piano Performance at UC Irvine under Nina Scolnik, a leading exponent of the Taubman Approach, a groundbreaking analysis of the mostly invisible motions that function underneath a virtuoso technique. A certified Yoga instructor, Nancy uses a holistic approach to teaching, enhancing focus and reducing performance anxiety.

Having established a private piano studio in 1984, a long-time member of the Music Teachers Association of California, Nancy served on the board from 1992-2000.

Nancy is thrilled to have joined the Associate Faculty at Norco College in the fall of 2012, bringing over 30 years' experience to the classroom.
