

2020-2021 Finish Line Emergency Grant Program

The Finish Line Emergency Financial Aid Grant is intended to help students overcome short-term financial barriers that may prevent them from beginning or staying in college. Once awarded, students can use these funds for unexpected financial expenses such as car repairs or loss of employment, educational related expenses such as fees and books/supplies, or even food, clothing and household necessities, etc.

- Must be currently enrolled at Norco College as your Home College location for Spring 2021
- Must be in good academic standing
- Must have exhausted all other financial resources

 Grants will be awarded in the amount of $500.00. Finish Line Emergency funds are limited and will be distributed to students until all available funds are exhausted.
