

What can I do with this major?

Public Health

Occupational Outlook

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can help you find career information on duties, education and training, pay, and outlook

Health Educators
Epidemiologists
Microbiologist
Medical Scientist

Professional Associations

These organizations are one of the best places you can go to build networks, set up informational interviews, connect with mentors, get internships, earn scholarships and find jobs in your career field.

- American Public Health Association
- Society for Public Health Education
- National Public Health Leadership Development Network
- National Association of Community Health Center
- National Association of County and City Health Officials
- Association of State and Territorial Health Officials
- Explore Health Education
- American College of Epidemiology
- Association for Professionals in Infection Control
- Public Health Foundation

Career Information

Websites to help you dig deeper into careers in Public Health

What is Public Health? A career in public health opens the door to diverse opportunities in a variety of sectors such as federal, private and non-governmental organizations.

Health Management Careers: Healthcare is one of today's most dynamic and growing fields, with a wide range of opportunities and challenges.

PublicHealth.org: Work to improve the overall health of communities through research, regulation, education and high-quality, accessible health care.

Association of Schools of Public Health: Our mission is to transform public health by strengthening and promoting the education, research, service, and practice activities in academic public health.

Careers in Public Health: Public health is a very exciting, growing field in the United States that offers many options and financial rewards.

National Center for Health Statistics: The CDC is one of the major operating components of the Department of Health and Human Services

National Institutes of Health: A part of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, NIH is the largest biomedical research agency in the world.

World Health Organization: WHO staff work side by side with governments and other partners to ensure the highest attainable level of health for all people.

Council on Education for Public Health: An independent agency to accredit schools of public health and public health programs offered in settings other than schools of public health.

Explore Health Careers: A collaboration between today's health professionals and leading health care associations designed to help people like you start down the road toward a career in health.

Job Postings

Find Your Career!

Mustang Career Connection

Public Health Jobs

Health Promotion Jobs

Health Promotion Career Network

